

Speaking Truth In Love

The Bible teaches that we can refuse God's offer of eternal salvation. In fact the Scripture emphasizes that we can lose the very thing that God has provided for our salvation. Let's notice the following points:

- 1) Faith in the Lord Jesus saves (Jn 8:24), but our faith can be overthrown by false teachers (2 Tim 2:18).
- 2) The Grace of God saves (Eph 2:8), but a Christian can fall from grace (Gal 5:4).
- 3) The Blood of Christ saves (Eph 1:7), but we can consider His blood a common or unholy thing (Heb 10:29).
- 4) The Hope of redemption saves (Rom 8:24), but we can be moved away from the hope of the gospel (Col 1:23).
- 5) Jesus saves (Matt 1:21), but we can deny Him and bring on ourselves swift destruction (2 Pet 2:1).
- 6) Truth saves (Jn 8:32), but we can err or wander from the truth (Jas 5:19).
- 7) Belief in the gospel of Christ saves (Rom 1:16), but we can fail to stand in it, refuse to hold fast to it, and thus believe in vain (1 Cor 15:1-2).
- 8) God saves and He desires all to be saved (1 Tim 2:3-4), but we can depart from the living God (Heb 3:12).
